

Eric Frank Hadsell

Petroleum Engineer for Completions and Production Mgmt. since 1981 in various Senior Operations roles in N. California and other States

Prior Work History: 23 years in Northern California Production and Completions;

Qualifications:

Technically accomplished in the design and operations in drilling, completions, abandonments, interventions, reservoir evaluation, artificial lift, surface facility design including pipeline design and compression, and acquisitions/divestitures including economic evaluation. All past responsibilities have required me to divide my time between several simultaneous projects.

Prior Work Experience:

Rosetta Resources, Calen., Coho Resources, Mitchell Energy/Devon ; Calpine and small independents

Present Consulting Practice:

Provides operators with detailed drilling and completion design including, economic evaluations, the latest in production optimization engineering including the selection, design and execution of hydraulic fracturing opportunities, artificial lift design, extreme low pressure gas production, and other specialized projects. Clients to date include Concordia Resources, Kelpetro Operating, Sacramento Natural Gas Storage, ABA Energy, Rosetta Resources (now California Resources Corp.), Falconridge Oil, Irani Engineering, and Harvest Petroleum Inc.

Graduated: Colorado School of Mines Petroleum Engineering